

Employer Non-Discrimination Policy

Rutgers University School of Law - Newark is firmly committed to a policy against discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, ancestry, handicap, sexual orientation, or marital or veteran's status. Accordingly, the school requires that employers using the services of the Career Services Office comply with this policy, and your use of this service indicates your concurrence. A copy of University Regulation 6.4.8 is available upon request. Please direct any questions to the Office of Career Services. Where employers believe that applicants in any one of these categories are unable to meet their bona fide qualifications for employment, the employer may continue to use the career development facilities of the university outside of the Law School if they inform that office in writing of their policy and the reasons. This information will be available to students.
