

RUTGERS SCHOOL OF LAW-NEWARK

presents

WORKSHOP ON

Vice and Crime

Friday, September 16, 2011

Papers will be published in Criminal Law and Philosophy.

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

9:00 – 9:10 am	Welcome and Introduction by Dean John J. Farmer, Jr.
9:10 – 10:10 am	Michelle Dempsey (Villanova), “Vice and the Volenti Maxim ” Commentary by Adil Haque (Rutgers–Newark)
10:10 – 11:10 am	Peter de Marneffe (Arizona State), “Vice Laws and Self-Sovereignty” Commentary by Youngjae Lee (Fordham)
11:10 – 11:40 am	Break
11:40 am – 12:40 pm	Ekow Yankah (Cardozo), “Legal Vices and the Rule of Law” Commentary by Michael Cahill (Brooklyn)
12:40 – 1:50 pm	Lunch
1:50 – 2:50 pm	Rob MacCoun (Berkeley), “Moral Outrage and Opposition to Policies That Reduce the Harms of Risky Behaviors” Commentary by Jeffrey Fagan (Columbia)
2:50 – 3:50 pm	Jim Leitzel (Chicago), “Toward Drug Control: Exclusion and Buyer Licensing” Commentary by Kyron Huigens (Cardozo)
3:50 – 4:15 pm	Break
4:15 – 5:15 pm	Vera Bergelson (Rutgers–Newark), “Vice Is Nice, but Incest Is Best” Commentary by Luis Chiesa (Pace)
5:15 – 5:30 pm	Closing Thoughts

There is no charge for registration, but if you would like to attend, please send an email by September 2 to conference coordinator Janet Donohue at jdonohue@andromeda.rutgers.edu.